

Alive in Jesus vs. GraceLinks – Sabbath School Programs

- GraceLinks has been the long-standing curriculum for Sabbath School, covering various age groups including Kindergarten and Primary.
- Alive in Jesus is the new curriculum being introduced by the Seventh-day Adventist Church to replace GraceLinks gradually. It focuses on a Christ-centered approach and updated teaching methods.

Discontinuation of GraceLinks for 2026

Yes, GraceLinks for Kindergarten and Primary is being phased out starting in 2026. The Alive in Jesus program will fully replace GraceLinks for these age groups from that point onward. Other age groups may transition later depending on the rollout schedule.
